- JAPAN: Japanese Importer seeking US Retail Products for Distribution in Asia

World Trade Center Tokyo is currently working with a trusted partner company that has been deeply involved in the domestic wholesale and retail business in Japan for many years. The company purchases products from domestic manufacturers and sells them to domestic retailers, also handling the logistics. The products they deal with have a proven track record of strong sales. The company also operates subsidiaries in Shanghai, China and Seoul, South Korea. As part of their international expansion efforts, they are now seeking to find an American company with a similar business model for potential collaboration in the Japan-U.S. import/export business. For more information, please reach out to Mina Zhang of WTC Tokyo.
